

By Grace I'm Saved

Words: Christian L. Scheidt, 1742. Translated by Matthias Loy, (1828-1915).
Music: 'O Dass Ich Tansend Zungen' Johann Balthasar König, 1738.

Setting: "The Evangelical Lutheran Hymnal" (Ohio Synod), 1908.
copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2007 Revision.

♩ = 120

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tempo is marked as ♩ = 120. The score consists of three systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are written below the staves, with some lines having multiple versions for different parts of the choir. The first system covers the first line of the hymn, the second system covers the second line, and the third system covers the third line. The lyrics are as follows:

6. By grace! but think not, thou who livest
 Securely on in godless ways,
 That thou, though all are called, receivest
 The promised rest that wakes our praise:
 By grace none find in heaven a place
 Who live in sin in hope of grace.

7. By grace! They who have heard this sentence
 Must bid hypocrisy farewell;
 For only after deep repentance
 The soul what grace imports can tell;
 To sin while grace a trifle seems,
 To faith it bright with glory beams.

8. By grace the timid hearts that languish,
Find access to the Father's heart,
When conflicts fierce and bitter anguish
Bid all their joy and hopes depart.
Where, oftentimes, should I strength obtain,
Bid grace my anchor not remain!
9. By grace! on this in death I'll rest me,
Rejoicing e'en though feeling naught;
I know my sin it oft oppressed me
But Him, too, who my soul hath bought:
My heart exults grief flees apace
Because my soul is saved by grace.
10. By grace! O sin and Satan hear it!
I bear my flag of faith in hand,
And pass, in spite of doubts, nor fear it,
The Red Sea to the promised land;
I hold the word my Savior taught
As certain, whether felt or not.
