

The Weeders

Thomas Arne

4 Joan march - ingforth, Joan march - ingforth, Joan march - ingforth, with and 7 old rus - tyknife, Tuck'd up her tail, Tuck'd up her tail, 10 Tuck'd up her tail, in the gar - den to weed; Ralph who anhour had been 13 toi - ling for life, Ralph who anhour had been toi - ling for life, 16 Call'd on the de-vil, Call'd on the de-vil, Call'd on the de-vil, to 19 quick - en her speed: Rot you, said he, Rot you, said
22 he, where theduce, where the duce have youbeen? Plague on your con-science, 25 Plague on your con-science, Plague on your con-science, must I work a-lone; 28 Down withthat this - tle, those cole - worts between, Down, Down withthat this - tle, those 31 cole - worts between, Mind, mind you old whore, mind you old
35 whore, or I'll tip you, I'll tip you astone, Oh! she cry'd 39 out with a ter - ri-ble, ter - ri - blesquall, I've had such a prick, such a prick, such a prick, as will make me run mad: Pox on thisthis - tle, the 42 gar - den and all, Pox on this this - tle the gar - den and all, No 45 sting of a hor - net was 4 e - ver so bad, No sting of a hor - net was 48 e - ver so bad. Plague on your bawl - ing, Plague on your bawl - ing, what 51 ails you, what ails you, come here, come here, come, No prick, no

55 prick cou'd havemade you so loud - ly to roar No prick, no
59 prick cou'd havemade you so loud - ly to roar; 'Tis sham - ming, 61 sham - ming thecrip - ple, for hark in your ear, You ne - ver yet squeak'd at a 64 hun-dred or more.
