

Milly's Faith

Charlotte Alington Barnard

Allegretto moderato

Voice

Piano

f marziale

6 p

Our vil-lage was sad when the sol - dierscamed, But we 11 cresc.

had-n't theheart our lads toblame, For whatwiththedrumsand the rib - bonsgay, The sol - diersflat-ter'dtheir

16 p

hearts a - way. Al-though the neigh - bours bit - ter - ly cried, And ma - ny a heart was sad be - side, But

21 p legato

mine me-thought was the sad - dest of all, As I watch'dthem a - way at the e - ven fall; Tho' I

dim. rit. a tempo

dim. rit. a tempo

25

cresc.

laugh'd and I told them to let me be, For I know that our Mark will be true to me; Tho' I laugh'd and I told them to p cresc.

30

dim.

let me be, For I know that our Mark will be true to me.

dim. p mf f

35

p

To fight in the bat-tles it was too bad They should come for a harm - less

p

40

cresc.p

vil - lage lad, To take him a - way from his friends and home, And car - ry him o'er the salt sea foam. Oh!

cresc. p

45

cresc.

would those drums had nev - er come near, For Mark was hap - py and peace - ful here; Con - tent to fol - low his

cresc. legato

50

dim. rit. p a tempo fa-ther's plough. Oh! I wish in my heart he was af-ter it now; Tho' I laugh and I tell them to let me be, For I

dim. a tempo p

rit.

55

cresc. dim.

know that our Mark will be true to me; Tho' I laugh and I tell them to let me be, For I know that our Mark will be

cresc. dim.

60

p

true to me.

p mf f dim.

p 65 cresc.

But sum-mer has gone, and a year has flown, Since we fol-low'd their march - ing o'er the down, And wher - e - ver they went is a

p cresc.

70

p puz-zle to me, But I know that it's some-where a - cross the sea. And Mark went march - ing off with the rest, And

p legato

75

cresc.dim.

held up his head as well as the best; And if the bat-tles be won, I know It is all thro' per-suad-ing our

rit.

dim.

rit.

80

p a tempo

Mark to go. So I laugh and I tell them to let me be, For I know that our Mark will be a tempo

p

84

cresc.dim.

true to me; So I laugh and I tell them to let me be, For I know that our Mark will be cresc.

sf

f

dim.

88

p

true to me.

p

mf