

Farewell to Erin

Charlotte Alington Barnard

Voice

Piano

5

9

12

15

I'm

sail - in' a - way o'er the green sea to - mor - row, I'm leav - in' the land o' the sham - rock be-hind; From Fa - ther and Mo - ther I'm part - in' in sor - row, And och! I've a cra - vin' to al - ter my mind. But yet could I bear ye to sail off with - out me, And did - n't I pro mise a true wife to be; Ah! I tell them I'll nev - er for - 18

-sake ye or doubt - ye, Where - ev - er thou art, would seem E - rin to me.

21

But

25

Der - mot, re-mem - ber it's all I am leav - in', And sure you'll be lov - in' and ten - der as now; I know in my heart you would ne'er be de - ceiv - in' The bless - in' o' Hea - ven you call'd on the vow. But, dar - lin', my tears have been bit - ter and ma - ny, It's 35

29

32

nigh up - on break - in', my heart seems to be, Ah! ^{or} but still I'll be think - in' I'm back in Kil - ken - ny, Where - e - ver thou art would seem E - rin to me.

38

41

Fare -

45

- well to the land o' my heart's best af - fec - tions, May an - gels be watch - in' the cab - in I love, And

49

bring to my dreams the be - lov'd re - so - lu - tion, Tho' far from the moun - tain and

52

val - ley I rove. Some day we'll re - turn, if kind Hea - ven be wil - lin', Then hap - py my heart nigh to burst - in' will be, Yet where - e'er we may roam, and tho' strange be the dwell - in', Where - ev - er thou art would seem E - rin to me.

55

58

61