

The Beggar Maid

Alfred Tennyson

Joseph Barnby

Andante con moto

Voice

Piano e sostenuto
Her arms a-cross her breast she laid: She was more

Piano

p

Red. ❁ Red. ❁

3

fair than words can say: Bare-foot-ed came the

Red. ❁ Red. ❁

6

cres.
beg-gar maid bare-foot-ed came the beg-gar maid Be-fore the

poco rit.

cres. poco rit.

king ————— Co - phe - tu - a. In a tempo

mf

a tempo

Red. ❁ Red.

robe and crown the king stept down, To meet and greet her on her rit.

rit.

way; "It is no won - der," said the lords, "It is no won - der," said the

a tempo

cresc.

cresc.

sf a tempo

Red.

lords, "She is more beau - ti - ful than day, she is more

rit.

f

dim. e rall.

rit. sf dim. e rall.

23 p Lento p

beau - ti - ful than day." And shines the moon in cloud - ed skies, p pp Lento

27 Tempo I cresc.

She in her poor at - tire was seen: One praised her an - kles, one her

Tempo I

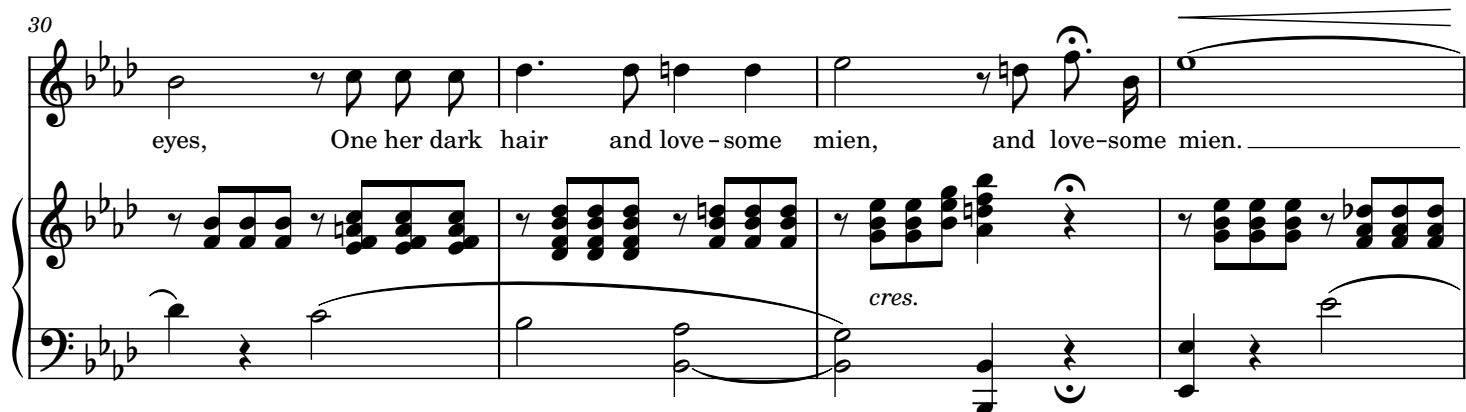

sf

30

eyes, One her dark hair and love - some mien, and love - some mien.

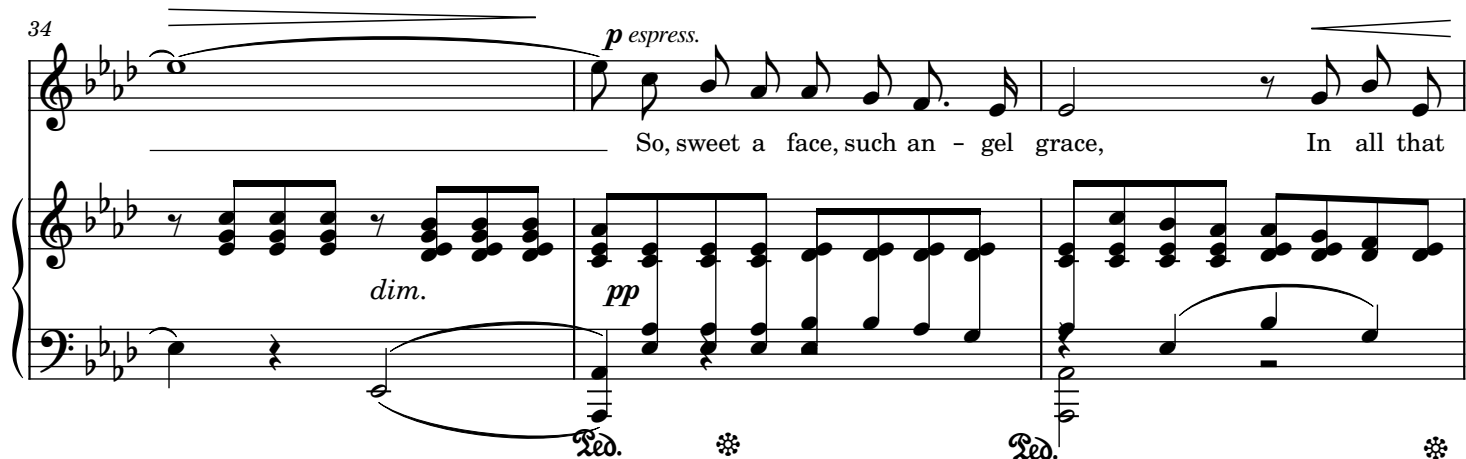

cres.

34 p espress.

So, sweet a face, such an - gel grace, In all that

dim. pp

37

land had nev - er been: Co-phe-tua sware a roy - al

f

Red. * Red. *

40

oath: “This beg-gar maid shall be my queen,

ff

43

— my queen.”

dim. p pp

Red. * Red.