2. Le spectre de la rose

Théophile Gautier

English translation by Francis Hueffer

Hector Berlioz

Adagio un poco lento e dolce assai (♩ = 96)

The first system of the musical score for 'Le spectre de la rose'. It features a piano introduction in E major, 3/8 time. The right hand plays a series of chords and single notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic foundation with sustained chords and moving lines. The tempo is marked 'Adagio un poco lento e dolce assai' with a quarter note equal to 96 beats per minute. The dynamic is 'pp' (pianissimo).

The second system of the musical score. It continues the piano introduction with more complex harmonic textures in both hands, including arpeggiated figures and sustained chords.

The third system of the musical score. It begins with a vocal entry on the right staff, marked 'dolce assai e placido'. The lyrics 'Sou - Sweet' are written above the vocal line. The piano accompaniment continues with intricate textures. The system includes performance markings: 'Red.' (Reduction), a floral ornament, and 'una corda' (one string).

The fourth system of the musical score, starting at measure 10. It features the vocal line with the lyrics: '-lè - ve ta pau - piè - re clo - se qu'ef-fleure un maid, wake from thy dream un - close Thy tir - ed'. The piano accompaniment provides a lush, harmonic background for the vocal melody.
