The musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lyrics are: "rhyme, Ere the leaf be sere and yel - low,". The piano accompaniment is in two staves (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature. It features a series of chords and single notes, with a long melodic line in the right hand and a more rhythmic line in the left hand. The word "dolce" is written above the final measure of the piano part. The score ends with a double bar line and a small asterisk.

The image shows a musical score for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It contains six measures of music. The lyrics are 'ho!' under the first measure, and ''Tis a world of woe,' under the remaining five measures. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves, treble and bass, with a grand staff brace on the left. The key signature is also two flats. The piano part features a complex harmonic texture with many chords, some of which are beamed together. The bass line is more rhythmic, often using eighth and sixteenth notes. The overall style is that of a 19th-century vocal and piano work.
