

The Land of Long Ago

Thomas Westwood

Ellen Dickson

Poco allegro

Voice

Piano

f

p 5

Do you ask me, lit - - tle peo - ple, Where I find my songs and

p cresc. f

8

p dit - ties? Oh, it's far from tow'r and stee - ple, Far from 11

fields, and far from ci - ties; poco più lento Ay, so ve - - ry far that

poco più lento

14

ne-ver, Though your feet were like the wind, Could you reach the place for cresc.

18

e - ver Out of sight, and out of mind Wait, my

f cresc. p

Colla voce

21

chil - dren, time will show it, Through the gloom of years 'twill grow, Clear to cresc. f

25

all your eyes— You'll know it As the land of Long a - go.

p f

29

p

2. You may
3. Now the p

33

laugh, my lit - tle peo - ple, But be sure my sto - ry's true, For I por - tal clo - ses, clo - ses, And the dark - ness walls it round, Leaving

cresc. f

37

vow, by yon church stee - ple, I was once a child like you;
child - hood by the ro - ses, Age up - on the flin - ty ground:

p

41

Just as fris - ky in the wild - wood, Just as nim - ble in the race; But I Nay, my chil - dren, not in sad - ness, Nor re-proach, these words I say; God is

p

45

lost good, my hap - py child - hood; Do you ask in what strange place, and gives new glad - ness, When the old Hetakes a - way

colla voce

49

In what dark - somelanes and al - leys, It slipp'd from me? you shall But where all my songs and dit - ties I go seek - ing, now you

p cresc. f

52

know; It was in the dew - y val - leys Of the Land of Long a - know; Far from fields, and far from ci - ties, In the Land of Long a -

p

56

- go.
- go.

f