I wish I did not love him, or that he'd love me, But what's the use of wish - ing for what's

11

not to be; He's no - ble, he's kind, he's true as true can be, He has but one fault I can find, He does - n't love me, He has but one fault I can find, He does - n't love me. No, no, no,

16

21

26

no, He does - n't love me, No, no, not me, He 31

does - n't love me. My

37

fool - ish heart goes pit - a - pat when he is near, It beats so loud I

42

won - der that it does - n't make him hear, And when I look him in the face, I think he'll sure - ly see How ten - der - ly I love him, then per - haps he'll love me, How ten - der - ly I love him, then per - haps he'll love me. But

47

52

57

no, no, no, no, no, He does - n't love me, No, no, not

62

me, He does - n't love me.

67

I'm sure that he loves some - bo - dy, I won - der who it is? I'll hate the ve - ry sight of her, If ev - er she is his! But what's the use of 78

73

sigh - ing, and cry - ing, I'll see If I can't love some - bo - dy else, who

83

does - love me, If I can't love some - bo - dy else, who does love

88

me. Yes, yes, some - bo - dy else, who does love me, some -

93

-bo - dy else, who does love me.
