

To Charles F. Webber
My Lady of Sleep

Unknown (M.M.)

Helen Hopekirk

Andantino p

Voice

Piano

pp p

Ah, but thou com'st so gen - tly O - ver the 6

star - lit deep, Star - ry are thine eyes to me, Ev - er a new sur - prise to me,

11 mf

Yet — I'd weep, weep and weep, Yet — I'd weep, weep and weep, To feel the hand that 16 p

lies on me, My La - dy of sleep.

p pp rit.

23

p con tenerezza

Bend a - bove me ten - der - ly, So that thy sha - dow deep,

27

cresc.

Shades my limbs from heat of the sun, And my heart from sor - rows ne'er done; And

31

pp

hush thee lest I weep and weep, And hush thee lest I weep, To hear the 36

whis-p'ring of dreams, — My La - dy of sleep. La - dy of 42

sleep.

p Lay a dark tress of thy hair

pp p

47

O - ver mine eyes, and keep Still thy cool hand on my brow, So that ev - er -

52

ff

- more as now, Wak - ing not to weep and weep, Wak - ing not to weep and weep,

ff

57

I may rest in love of thee, Dear La - dy of Sleep, Dear La - dy rit. of Sleep!

f f rit.

63

p dim. pp