

Spring Songs, Op.44

3. Spring's Secrets

Alfred Perceval Graves

Alexander Mackenzie

Allegretto. ♩ = 92

Voice

Piano

mf

calando

p

pp

Più lento, quasi recit.

As once I paused on po - et

4

wing In the green heart of a grove,

Tempo I

Più lento, quasi recit.

I met the Spi - rit of the 7

calando

Tempo I

Spring With her great eyes lit of love.

calando

mf

10 p pp

Ancora più lento

She took me gent - ly by the hand And whis - pered in my

12 pp

ra-vished ear Se - crets none may un - der - stand, Till she a tempo make their

una corda ppp a tempo

16 mf

mean - ing clear.

mf f accel. molto molto rit.

20

Allegretto vivace ♩. = 80

p

Why the prim - - rose looks so

p pp

22

pale _____ Why the rose _____ is set with thorns: _____ Why the

p

25

ma - gic night - in - gale _____ Through the dark-ness mourns and mourns.

mf

p

28

p accel

How the an - - gels, as they

p p

31 mf sempre - - - - - f

pass _____ In their ve - sture pure and white _____ calando O'er the

calando

34 p calando

sha-dow - y gar - - den grass, _____ Touch the li - lies in - to

p calando

37 a tempo p

light. _____ How their

a tempo f

40

hid - den hands _____ up - bear the fled - gling thros-tle _____ in the

pp p

43

air. And

p f molto dim.

46

lift the low - - ly lark on high And hold him

p mf f

49

sing - - ing in the sky What hu - - man

p pp

52

hearts _____ de-light her most? _____

f

ff

55

The care - less child _____ with ro - ses

mp

p

58

crowned, The mour - ner, know - ing that his lost _____ The

p

pp

poco a poco calando

poco a poco calando

61

mf

sempre alla fine

mour - ner, know - ing that his lost _____ Shall in th'E - ter - nal Spring be

mf

p sempre alla fine

64

p rit.

f

found, shall in th'E - ter - nal Spring be found, _____ be

p rit.

67

p

a tempo

found. _____

mf a tempo

p

pp calando