

Spring Songs, Op.44

4. Spring Is Not Dead

Alfred Perceval Graves

Alexander Mackenzie

Allegro moderato (♩ = 80)

Voice

Piano

f

p

5

Snow on the earth; though March is well nigh o - ver,

9

calando Ice on the flood; a tempo Fin - gers of frost where late the haw - thorn co - ver

15

calando bur - geoned with bud. a tempo Yet in the drift the pa - tient

accel poco a poco

p

a tempo

accel poco a poco

19 mf

prim - - rose hid - - ing, Yet in the stream the glitt - ering

23 f p

trout - - let glid - - ing, Yet from the root the sap still sempre accel.

27 mf

up - ward spring - ing, Yet o - - ver - head one faith - ful rit.

31 f

sky - - lark sing - - ing "Spring is not dead!"

appassionato

a tempo

sempre

35

Spring is not dead, is not dead! rit. a tempo

38

mf

42

f p p

Brows fringed with

46

snow, the furrowed brows of sorrow, Cheeks pale with calando

p calando

50

p

care: Pul - ses of pain that throb from night till mor - row;

55

mf <p

calando
Hearts of des - pair! accel.
Oh, yet take com - - fort, still your 59

mf

joy ap - proach - es, Dark is the hour that on the 63

fp

dawn en - croach - - es, accel.
Ap - - pril's own smile shall yet suc -

67

- ceed your sigh - - ing A - - pril's own

70

voice set eve - ry song rit. bird cry - - - ing,

73

ff
a tempo appassionato
"Spring is not dead," "Spring is not dead, is not 77

a tempo
dead!"