The mer - ry, mer - ry Spring, the bright, bright Spring, What joy she shakes from her flow' - ry wing! When the young bird sings from its lea - fy nest How hap - py it sleeps on its Mo - ther's breast, How sweet to roam at beau - ty's side Thro' glens, and dells, and wood - land's wide; How sweet to sit by a foun - tain clear, And

12

15

19

At mer - ry, mer - ry morn, or Eve-ning still, How sweet to roam by the 40

bal - my hill; To cull a wreath of flow - rets rare To twine 'mid the locks of a

44

Maid - en's hair; How sweet to fly from care and strife, And the 47 dull cold round of Ci - ty life, To roam the wood and sha - dy grove, And
