The musical score is written for four vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo/mood is marked pp (pianissimo). The lyrics are: "To her whose patient eyes have seen Man's knowledge wax thro' her, to her whose pa - - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro' — to her whose pa - tient, pa - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro' — to her whose pa - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro'". The piano accompaniment consists of two staves, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a bass line. The vocal parts are arranged in four staves, with the Soprano and Alto parts having lyrics, and the Tenor and Bass parts having lyrics. The lyrics are: "To her whose patient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro' her, to her whose pa - - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro' — to her whose pa - tient, pa - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro' — to her whose pa - tient eyes have seen Man's know-ledge wax thro'".

The musical score is for a piece titled "Wind of the Spirit". It consists of five systems of music. The first four systems are vocal parts, each with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The fifth system is a piano accompaniment with both treble and bass staves. The lyrics are: "ebb and flow, Till some have felt those bars be - tween Wind of the Spi - - rit, ebb and flow, Till some have felt some have felt ebb and flow, Till some have felt those bars be - tween". The musical notation includes various dynamics such as ppp (pianissimo) and legatissimo (legatissimo), and articulation marks like slurs and accents. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand.
