

3 Songs, Op.12

2. More Fond than Cushat Dove

Thomas Ingoldsby

C. Hubert H. Parry

Allegretto

Voice

legato

Piano

p

4

p

There sits a bird on yon - der tree, More

7

fond than Cus - hat dove; ——— There sits a bird on 10

yon - der tree, And sings to me of love. Oh

13

stoop thee from thine ey - rie down, And nes-tle thee near my heart, For the accel.

17

mo - ments fly and the hour is nigh, When thou and I must rall.

20

part, My love! when thou and I must part.

24

p
In

28

yon - der cov - ert lurks a fawn, The pride of syl - van

31

scene: In yon - der cov - ert lurks a fawn, And 34

I am his on - ly queen: Oh! bound from thy 37

se - cret lair, For the sun is be-low the west: Nor 40

accel.

mor - tal eye may our meet - ing spy, For all are closed in 43

rall.

rest, My love! each eye is closed in rest.

47

p

Oh!

51

sweet is the breath of morn, When the sun's first beams ap -

54

- pear; Oh! sweet is the shep - herd's strain, When it

57

dies on the list - 'ning ear. Oh! sweet the soft ____

60

voice that speaks The wan - der - er's wel - come home; But sweet - er far by yon 64 cresc.

pale mild star, With our true love thus to roam, My dear! _____

67 p

— With our own true love to roam; With our

rall.

71

own true love _____ to roam.

rall.

colla voce

p

75

pp rall.