

The Ballad of Kingslea Mere

Thomas Love Peacock

Cyril Rootham

Allegro moderato (♩ = about 120)

p

Voice

The dam - sel stood _____

Piano

p

4

_____ to watch the fight, by the banks of Kings - lea _____

7

Mere; And they brought to her feet her own true knight _____

11

_____ sore wound - - - ed on a bier. _____

rit.

rit.

15

She knelt by him _____ his wounds to bind, She 19

washed _____ them with man - - y a tear. _____

cresc.

23

più mosso

And shouts rose fast up - on the wind _____

più mosso staccato

26

_____ which told that the foe _____ was near _____ 30

appass.
"Oh let not," he said, "While yet I

33

live, The cru - el foe me take dim.
dolce But with

36

thy _____ sweet _____ molto rit. lips a last kiss give _____ And f

colla voce molto rit. p

39

risoluto
cast _____ me in the lake." _____

risoluto f dim. rit. p

43 p

A - round his neck she wound her

a tempo

p

3

46 dim.

arms, And she kissed his lips so pale;

dim.

49 f

animato

and ev - er more the war's a - larms

f animato

3

3

52

came loud - - - er up the vale

55

mf

She drew him to the lake's steep

58

side,

Where the red heath fringed the shore;

accel.

She plunged

62

with him be-neath the tide,

*molto rit.sf*66 ad lib. pp< > pp Lento (♩ = 60)

And they were seen no more.