

Saudades

3. Heracleitus

Poem translated from the Greek of Callimachus by William Cory

Peter Warlock

Slow
tempo very free - the voice murmuring to itself

Voice

They told me, Her - a - clei - tus, they told me you were dead, They brought me bit - ter

Piano

mp

= about 80)

news to hear and bit-ter tears to shed; I wept as I re-mem-bered how of - ten you and pochiss. rit. a tempo

sffz

tenuto

rit. molto

I Had tired the sun with talk - ing and sent him down the sky.

rit. molto

pppp

Since this piece is unmeasured, accidentals only apply to the notes they immediately precede.
Although this renders naturals unnecessary, some precautionaries have been added as an aid to musicians unfamiliar with this system.

Più lento

mezzo voce

naturale

And now that thou art ly - ing, my dear old Cari-an guest, A hand - ful of grey pp p pppp subito

ash-es, long, long a - go at rest, Still are thy plea-sant mf pppp

Più lento Adagio assai voic - es, thy night-in-gales, a-wake. For Death, he tak-eth all a-way, mf p

p (chiaro)

rall. al fine

But them he can-not take.

pp
poco rubato ma sempre adagio

rall. al fine

not struck

Red.

pppp

*