The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with chords and single notes. The lyrics are printed below the staves, aligned with the notes.

-turn -eth! Hal -le - lu - jah! Hal -le - lu - jah! A - men. Hal -le - lu - jah! A - men.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It also consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). The lyrics continue below the staves, ending with a double bar line. The music maintains the same homophonic style.
