7. A soul in that body abided,
 A soul that in Jesus confided,
 A soul that hath longed for salvation,
 And now hath found hope's consummation.

6. A gift to the churchyard we tender,
 As dust to the dust we surrender;
 Returning the clay to its Maker,
 We lay it to rest in God's acre.

8. O earth, we consign to thy keeping
 This body with sorrow and weeping;
 In peace to await resurrection,
 When it shall arise in perfection.

7. A soul in that body abided,
 A soul that in Jesus confided,
 A soul that hath longed for salvation,
 And now hath found hope's consummation.

9. O Christ, our soul's Maker and Lover;
 When time and earth's travail are over,
 Thou closest the grave's mournful story,
 And callest Thine own to Thy glory.
