6. Upon thy lips, then, lay thy hand
 And trust His guiding love;
 Then like a rock thy peace shall stand
 Here and in heav'n above.

7. O Lord I sing with lips and heart,
 Joy of my soul, to Thee:
 To Earth Thy knowledge I impart,
 As it is known to me.

8. Thou art the Fount of grace, I know,
 And Spring so full and free,
 Whence saving health and goodness flow
 Each day so bounteously.

9. For what have all that live and move
 Through this wide world below
 That does not from Thy bounteous love,
 O Heav'nly Father flow?

10. Who built the lofty firmament?
 Who spread th' expanse of blue?
 By whom are to our pastures sent
 Refreshing rain and dew?

11. Who warmeth us in cold and frost?
 Who shields us from the wind?
 Who orders it that oil and must
 We in their season find?

12. Who is it life and health bestows?
 Who keeps us with His hand
 In golden peace, wards off war's woes
 From our dear native land?

13. O Lord of this and all our store
 Thou art the author blest;
 Thou keepest watch before our door,
 While we securely rest.

14. Thou feedest us from year to year,
 And constant dost abide;
 With ready help in time of fear,
 Thou standest at our side.

15. He ever will with patience chide,
 His rod falls gently down,
 And all thy sins He casts aside
 And in the sea doth drown.

16. When silent woe thy bosom rends,
 His pity sees thy grief,
 Supplies what to His glory tends
 And to thine own relief.

17. He knows how oft a Christian weeps
 And why his tears now fall;
 And in the book His mercy keeps
 These things are noted all.

18. Our deepest needs dost Thou supply,
Thou giv'st what lasts for aye.
Thou lead'st us to our home on high,
When hence we pass away.
