

To Jordan Came Our Lord, The Christ

Words: Martin Luther, 1541. Translated by Richard Massie, 1854.

Music: 'Christ, Unser Herr' Johann Walter, 1524.

Setting: composite from "Kern des Deutschen Kirchengesangs", 1855 and "Mehrstimmiges ChoralBuch", 1906.
copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2006 Revision.

$\text{♩} = 120$

The musical score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in a four-part setting. It is in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 120. The score consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a basso continuo line. The lyrics are in English and are aligned with the vocal line. The first system covers the first line of the hymn, the second system covers the second line, the third system covers the third line, and the fourth system covers the fourth line. The music is a composite of two different settings, as indicated in the title.

6. Who in this mercy hath not faith, Nor aught therein discerneth,
 Is yet in sin, condemned to death, And fire that ever burneth;
 His holiness avails him not, Nor aught which he is doing;
 His inborn sin brings all to naught, And maketh sure his ruin;
 Himself he cannot succor.

7. The eye of sense alone is dim, And nothing sees but water;
 Faith sees Christ Jesus, and in Him The Lamb ordained for slaughter;
 She sees the cleansing fountain red With the dear blood of Jesus,
 Which from the sins inherited From fallen Adam frees us,
 And from our own misdoings.
