The image displays the first 12 measures of the Prélude Op.28 No.7 by Frédéric Chopin. The music is written on a single staff in treble clef, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as 120 beats per minute. The score is divided into three lines of four measures each. The first line starts with a quarter note on C4, followed by a dotted quarter note on D4, and then a series of eighth and quarter notes. The second line continues the melody with various note values and rests. The third line concludes the excerpt with a final cadence. The notation includes various note values, rests, and a key signature change in the final measure.
