The musical score consists of five systems of staves. The first system (measures 54-57) shows a piano introduction with a descending line in the right hand and a more active bass line. The second system (measures 58-61) continues the melodic development with a crescendo leading to a piano dynamic. The third system (measures 62-66) includes a deceleration ('calando') and a dynamic decrease ('dim.', 'smorz.'). The fourth system (measures 67-71) marks the beginning of the 'Meno mosso' section, characterized by a change in tempo and dynamics ('sotto voce', 'pp'). The fifth system (measures 72-76) concludes the page with sustained chords and a final melodic phrase. Throughout the score, there are numerous slurs, ties, and dynamic markings such as 'f', 'p', 'pp', 'dim.', and 'smorz.'.

The musical score consists of five systems of staves. The first system (measures 105-110) begins with a molto cresc. marking and a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The second system (measures 110-115) continues with fortissimo (ff) and includes triplet markings. The third system (measures 115-120) features a ten. (tension) marking and sempre più f (always more forte). The fourth system (measures 120-124) includes ten., molto cresc., and a più animato instruction. The fifth system (measures 124-128) starts with fortissimo (ffz), followed by a dim. (diminuendo) and a piano (p) dynamic, then cresc. - (crescendo), and ends with a fortissimo (f) and sforzando (sf) marking, with an 8^a (octave up) instruction.
